CONTINUITY OF OPERATIONS

Alaska Native Corporation | Small Disadvantaged Business

With the increasing number of cyber-attacks, natural disasters, terrorism events, and unrest around the globe, the importance of continuity of operations (COOP) planning and disaster recovery planning is becoming more apparent.

Sugpiat Defense offers over 20 years of experience in all-hazards preparedness to assist Federal Government organizations with full Federal Continuity Directive (FCD)-1 compliance and continuous operation of National, Primary, and Mission Essential Functions (NEFs/PMEFs/MEFs), regardless of threat or mission location. We provide COOP plan development, IT Disaster Recovery Plan development, Business Impact Analysis, Test, Training, and Exercise (TT&E) development and management, emergency communications compliance, alternate site management support, mission risk assessments, essential records management, reconstitution planning, and devolution planning.

Our team of COOP professionals have significant and direct experience implementing risk controls for operations that require zero mission down time and continuous service availability regardless of threat or location.

Regardless of the undesirable event or mission, we can assist with your continuity needs.
